PLANES FLY PACIFIC IN FACE OF STORM

GLASS TO QUIZ ECCLES ON BILL TO RULE BANKS

Fiery Virginian Opposes Some Parts of Measure Passed by House.

ALDRICH TO TESTIFY, TOO

Proposal for Central Government Unit Backed by Coughlin, Rejected

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 10—The new deal's bid for greater power over money and credit came face to face with a senate critic today after winning overwhelming approval in the house yesterday.

Marriner S. Eccles, governor of the federal reserve board, was summoned before a senate subcommittee to answer questions about the cumulous banking bill which the house passed 271 to 110. Sen. Carter Glass, Democrat of Virginia, chairman of the subcommittee, has opposed some of the powers which the measure would concentrate in Washington.

Foresee Controversy

Leaders predicted there would be no action on the bill on the senate floor for several weeks but they foresaw a bitter controversy immediately before the Glass subcommittee.

Glass and his colleagues planned to hear Winthrop W. Aldrich, president of the Chase National bank, and Francis M. Law, former president of the American Bank[ers] association next Tuesday.

Aldrich was among the signers of a statement issued by the Bankers association recently approving sections of the bill dealing with deposit insurance and some technical changes in the banking laws but suggesting changes to minimize the possibility of what critics have envisioned as political control over the federal reserve system.

House passage of the bill came after that body had smashed down a proposal by Rep. Cross, Democrat of Texas, to make the federal reserve system a central government owned bank.

Fought by Radio Priest

The house vote against making the federal reserve system a central bank closely followed an appeal by the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, Detroit priest, for establishment of a central bank owned by the people and controlled by the people directly through the congress of the United States.

House Republicans tried unsuccessfully to eliminate sections of the bill which would extend presidential control over the federal reserve board, extend reserve control over reserve banks, allow the reserve board to tell the 12 federal reserve banks when to buy or sell government securities and permit the reserve board to vary the reserves member banks must maintain against deposits to prevent injurious credit expansion or contraction.

Roosevelt Victory

By that 271 to 110 vote President Roosevelt chalked up another notable victory in the lower body of congress. The measure now goes to the senate for a less certain reception there though the best bet is for its passage late in the session with some modifications of title 2.

A Republican motion in the house to recommit the measure with instructions to strike out title 2 was crushed by a vote of 260 to 115.

A drive by advocates of the Goldsborough "rubber dollar" bill to attach that measure as a rider to the banking bill was stopped short in its tracks 221 to 159. The Goldsborough measure would compel the reserve board to maintain a price level equal to the average of wholesale commodity prices from 1921 to 1929 by manipulation of gold and other devices. This is essentially the same bill which the house in 1932 passed 289 to 90 but which many inflationists now regard as old fashioned.

Battle Over Unified Setup

The sharpest fight came however on an effort by sponsors of a unified banking system to restore to the bill a provision requiring all non member banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. to join the federal reserve system or lose membership in FDIC.

Of about 16,000 banks in the United States slightly more than 7,000 are members of the reserve

TRUSTEES HEAR FERA PROGRAM

Township Officials Get Instructions on Projects at Meeting Here

Thirty three township trustees representing 14 of Marion county's 15 townships received detailed information about the broadened program of the FERA for rural districts at a meeting of FERA county and township officials in the common pleas court room yesterday.

The FERA is prepared to welcome rural projects for construction or reconstruction of roads, bridges and culverts, with special preference promised roads used for mail routes and school bus routes, the trustees were told. They were informed the FERA is prepared to furnish labor for deserving projects for which the townships will furnish materials and supervision.

Several township trustees expressed the opinion the trustees would prefer receiving federal grants of money and furnish their own labor for the jobs but it was explained that this procedure could not be followed.

As the trustees today considered terms of the FERA program John Abel, county relief director, said the county relief administration is ready to furnish about 800 FERA workers for city and rural projects that merit approval. He said the county now has about 600 men on FERA work out of a list of 1,675 employable persons on relief lists.

Although any township can submit FERA projects, workers for these projects can be selected only in the communities and townships in which all relief is handled by the county relief administration. These include Marion, Salt Rock, Big Island, Waldo, Prospect, Claridon and Montgomery townships. In the other townships relief is handled by the trustees with local funds.

OIL CO. WILL BUILD 4TH STATION HERE

Hickok To Open Place on Northwest Corner of Main and Farming

Plans for a new station of the Hickok Oil Co. of Toledo to be located at the northwest corner of Farming and North Main streets were announced today by J. L. Case and Guy Hawkins, Marion district officers for the company.

It will be the fourth new station in Marion for the company in a six-month period. Like the others it will be of glazed tile construction and will cost between $5,000 and $9,000, Mr. Case said.

Work will be started as soon as the city planning commission approves plans, he said. The commission will consider the plans Wednesday night.

The company last Saturday opened a new station at the northeast corner of South Prospect and West Columbia streets in charge of Robert McAndrew and Harold Henry.

OHIO ASSEMBLY MUST ACT SOON TO HELP AGED

Adjournment Less Than Two Weeks Away and Pension Fund Not Voted Yet

AID SYSTEM DENOUNCED

House Member Declares Setup Becoming a Racket in Vinton County

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 10—With adjournment scheduled less than two weeks away, Ohio's legislature faced today a necessity of providing for 57,000 old age pension clients to avoid a possible breakdown of the aid for aged system.

Pensioners met another threat that their June checks may be their last when opposition to the system was voiced in a hearing of the house taxation committee which voted against an increase in the liquid fuel tax as a means of financing the payments.

Records of the board of aid for the aged show that the appropriation for the first half of 1935 will cover payments of approximately $1,200,000 for June.

$7,000,000 Needed Yet

Seven millions are needed for the last six months of the year.

Administration leaders of the house made a desperate but futile effort to get the taxation committee's approval of the liquid fuel tax hike Thursday.

Speaker J. Freer Bittinger and Democratic Floor Leader Frank R. Uible praised the plan but saw their wishes shunted aside in a 13 to 5 negative vote in the committee.

That pension advocates may be in for a battle to obtain funds became evident when one member of the house, E. P. King, Republican of Vinton, asserted before the committee that old age pensions in my county are becoming a racket.

He also quoted Henry Berrodin, head of the old age pension system, as saying that unless the present trend in granting pensions is stopped it will bankrupt the state.

Farm Bureau Opposed

Added pressure against the liquid fuel tax was exerted by representatives of the Farm Bureau and the petroleum industry.

The committee now has before it proposals which include restoration of the 10 per cent amusement tax which was cut to 3 per cent when the sales tax was adopted, a 3 per cent levy on the gross business of chattel loan, finance and discount companies, and a one cent cut in the three cent gasoline tax coupled with a one cent increase in the liquid fuel levy.

One representative, P. E. Ward, questioned the advisability of cutting the gasoline tax on the grounds that decreased revenues for roads might result in loss of federal aid to the state for highway work.

He estimated that a jump in the

DELAWARE MILKMAN GUILTY IN SLAYING

Cummins Convicted of Manslaughter in Death of Man After Card Game.

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, O., May 10—Arthur Cummins, 37, milkman, was found guilty of manslaughter by a Delaware county jury last night at the conclusion of his three day trial for killing Harry Putts, 37, slain in a brawl that followed a card game Feb. 9.

Cummins was charged with second degree murder but Judge H. W. Jewell instructed the jury yesterday that any one of four verdicts could be returned. They were second degree murder, manslaughter, assault and battery and not guilty.

Counsel for Cummins said a new trial will be sought.

It was Delaware county's second murder trial in a year. Wilbur Scott, a negro automobile washer and radio entertainer, recently was given a life sentence in Ohio penitentiary for killing A. A. Wilson, aged Delaware ice cream merchant. The jury that tried Scott found him guilty of first degree murder and recommended mercy.

HE PAID IN CHAIR

Convicted of killing a prison guard, Raymond Hamilton, one of the southwest's most elusive bad men, died in the electric chair in Huntsville, Tex., today.

HAMILTON AND AID EXECUTED

Gunman Shows Concern For His Breeches Before Going to Execution Chamber.

HIS BRAGGING AT AN END

Three Others Electrocuted in Illinois For Slaying Trio in Bank Robbery

By The Associated Press

HUNTSVILLE, Tex., May 10—Raymond Hamilton, exhibiting even in his last minutes a shell of the conceit that helped make him a ranking public enemy, died meekly today in the electric chair.

He followed Joe Palmer, his partner in the slaying of Major Crowson, prison guard, to the execution chamber. Palmer was pronounced dead at 12:06 a. m. Hamilton, strapped into the chair at 12:18, was dead at 12:27.

The electrocution of the 22 year old gunman closed a crime career that began with sneak thief operations in his teens and developed swiftly to bank robbery, kidnaping, prison breaks and murder.

His Bravery All Gone

Hamilton's death was in marked contrast to his talk. He bragged he never would be taken alive but he surrendered meekly when Bill Decker, Dallas deputy sheriff, shoved a pistol into his ribs in a Fort Worth railroad yard a few weeks ago. One of his last acts was to send a word of thanks to Decker for not shooting him that night.

He still had a bit of swagger left when he was captured and told questioners the Texas prison would not hold him. It did hold him despite two previous breaks engineered by the late Clyde Barrow, Hamilton's former gang chief.

So nervous did Hamilton become late yesterday as his hopes of escaping death faded one by one, prison officials had feared he would be unable to go unaided through the ordeal.

He managed to do that but his face was ashen and his attempt to smile little more than a brief grimace as he entered the execution chamber.

"Well, goodbye all of you," were his last words as the death mask was adjusted after the electrodes had been applied and he had been strapped in the chair.

Just before he had made a brief statement in which he denied he was connected with the murder of a Hillsboro, Tex., filling station operator.

Learning of two unsuccessful efforts to save his life yesterday, Hamilton accepted the inevitable and summoned a vestige of the vanity that drove him during his career to help maintain him to the end.

A particular point of pride with the 22-year-old bandit in life had been his natty dress.

ATHLETES OF COUNTY SCHOOLS TO COMPETE

Leading Spring Event To Be Held Saturday at Pleasant Township Field, Program Is Broadened.

Marion county's foremost spring athletic program is scheduled to take place tomorrow on the Pleasant High school field when the annual county track and field meet is held.

The all day program is expected to attract a large crowd of school pupils, athletes, parents and sports followers. The meet, held under the supervision of the Marion County Athletic association, for the first time has been arranged with a broader program this year.

Seventh and eighth grade pupils will be competing for the first time, enabling coaches to see their future track material in action. Activities are scheduled to start at 9:30 a. m. and will continue throughout the afternoon. A lunch con will be served at the Pleasant school. The afternoon session will start at 1 o'clock.

Prospect is the defending champion with Pleasant, Morral and Claridon expected to furnish the strongest opposition. If the weather continues to remain favorable tomorrow, track coaches believe that several new records will be set.

A number of families and rural school classes are planning to make the day the occasion for picnics and meetings. Officials for the meet announced today by M. L. Barnhart, Pleasant High school coach in charge of the meet, are:

Field judge—Supt. P. E. C[illegible]land of Waldo; head track judge—Supt. G. W. Cox of Caledonia; track judges—Superintendent [illegible] M. Barder of LaRue, C. A. Secrist of Prospect and Ralph N. White of Agosta and Morral schools.

Final preparations were made today for a large attendance at the event. Workmen completed conditioning of the track and field late this afternoon.

DAVEY NAMES BUCYRUS MAN OHIO LIQUOR CHIEF

Appointment of Judge James W. Miller as State Director Announced in Columbus

Probate Judge James W. Miller of Bucyrus was appointed state liquor director today by Governor Davey, The Associated Press reported in a press report from Columbus.

Judge Miller said he now will take over the directorship when the resignation of Charles H. Burk as director becomes effective.

The governor's appointment of Judge Miller had been expected momentarily since Burk's resignation was made public yesterday in Columbus.

As liquor director Judge Miller will occupy what Governor Davey yesterday described in many respects the most important job in the state and will receive a salary of $6,500 a year.

Native of Bucyrus

His successor as probate judge of Crawford county will be named by Governor Davey.

Judge Miller, who has been active in Crawford county public affairs for 20 years, is a close friend of Francis W. Poulson, state Democratic chairman, and one of the original Davey for governor advocates. He is a native of Bucyrus and has been an attorney there for more than 30 years.

He served two terms as city solicitor and formerly was secretary of the Bucyrus Building & Loan Co. He resigned that position to become probate judge and now is in the middle of his second term in that office.

He was graduated from Bucyrus High school and from the law school of Ohio State university, beginning the practice of law in Bucyrus shortly after his admission to the bar in 1901.

Five in Family, 76 to 89 Years of Age, in Reunion

Five brothers and sisters ranging in ages from 76 to 89 met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. A. Baker of 797 Congress street to celebrate the birthday anniversary of one of the group, William W. Savidge, 86, of Green Camp. Mr. Savidge makes his home during the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Baker.

The dinner party was given by Mrs. Baker and her sister, Mrs. J. O. Johnson of Green Camp.

The baby of the family is M. K. Savidge, 76, of Mt. Victory. The others are Mrs. Elizabeth Stoll, 78, of Carey, Mrs. Jane Burson, 81, of Carey and Mrs. Letitia Lamons, 89, of 652 North Prospect street.

The five and a brother who died, George Savidge, all were born near Carey to the late Lester W. and Julian Savidge.

Foster Savidge of Mt. Victory and Earl Burson of Carey were other guests at the party.

WILL MAIL RELIEF CHECKS ON MAY 15

10 Per Cent Increase Made in Allowance for Food

Cash relief checks totaling $11,607.31 will be placed in the mail May 15 to provide food and household necessities of a group of Marion county relief clients for the period May 16-31, John Abel, county relief director, announced this morning.

Of this $10,466.29 will go to 1,014 relief families and $1,141.02 to 305 non-family persons.

Checks for the last half of May represent 10 per cent increases for food allowances as compared with checks for the first half of May and also include a seven per cent allowance for household necessities and enough additional cash to pay the state sales tax on food purchases, Mr. Abel said.

All Who Mail Chain Letters Law Violators

Postal Ruling Holds Those Who Write Messages Also Guilty

Writing and mailing of chain letters is a violation of postal laws, Postmaster L. L. Lamborn warned Marion residents this morning after receiving an opinion of the solicitor of the postoffice department at Washington, D. C.

Violations are punishable by a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment not more than two years or both.

The postoffice department's decision that senders of chain letters are postal law violators refutes the general opinion of chain letter senders that only the originators of the chain letter idea could be prosecuted.

Mr. Lamborn this morning said about 100 chain letters received by Marion residents have been turned over to postoffice officials to date. He estimated that several times that number have been received and sent here.

Since the senders of chain letters must affix their names on the letters to receive any benefits from the chain letter scheme it will not be difficult to obtain the names of persons who are sending them, the postmaster pointed out.

C. A. KLUNK IN RACE FOR MARION MAYOR

Operator of Hotel Marion Is First Republican Candidate in Field

Charles A. Klunk, owner and operator of Hotel Marion, today announced he will seek the Republican nomination for mayor at the Aug. 13 primaries.

His entry in the mayoralty race is the second, Mayor Clarence A. Bolin having declared his intentions yesterday to seek reelection.

His declaration of candidacy is being circulated for signatures now and will be filed with the county board of elections Monday, Mr. Klunk said.

Although he said he has nothing yet to announce regarding the platform on which he will seek the nomination and election, he did assert he would give "the best administration possible if I am fortunate enough to be elected."

At least two other Republicans are expected to enter the mayoralty race before the filing deadline. They are Ray Lorentz and R. J. Prettyman. They and Mr. Klunk have been mentioned in recent weeks as the most probable bidders for the office.

Mr. Klunk has owned and operated Hotel Marion eight years and before that was owner and operator of the Pure Oil Co., which was sold to the Pure Oil Co. He came to Marion from Wabash, Ind., 23 years ago. He and Mrs. Klunk live at Hotel Marion.

He has been active in civic affairs, now serving as president of the Marion Club and his fifth term as Marion Auto club president. He is 57 years of age.

BANDITS IDENTIFIED BY CLEVELAND MAN

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., May 10—George Pirce[illegible] identified two men suffering from bullet wounds in a hospital today as holdup men who tried earlier to rob him of $7,000.

What puzzled police however was how both men received wounds when Pirce[illegible] said he fired only one shot.

Pirce[illegible] told police the men attempted to hold him up when he entered his garage early today. He said as one of the men seized him by the throat he leaped back and fired a pistol, then ran into his house as the two holdup men fired several shots. He said the men took his car and sped away.

DELAWARE CO. TO GET CAMP

One of 31 New Projects To Be Started in Ohio, Enrollment Increased

One of 31 new CCC camps in Ohio under the expanded program being carried out through the $4,800,000 work relief fund will be located in Delaware county, according to an Associated Press dispatch today.

The Delaware projects will be a drainage camp.

A large number of youths on relief from Marion and nearby counties in the last CCC enlistment in April probably will be stationed in the new camps in Ohio, Boyd Illsworth, deputy CCC selecting agent here, said.

The increase in the number of camps in the state will bring the total to 77 and will increase the number of youths from 7,200 to 13,400. The number to be enrolled in Ohio will be increased from 17,000 to 35,000 and about 20,000 of them will be assigned to work projects in other states.

Soil erosion prevention will be one of the major activities and other work will include forest protection and improvement, drainage projects, state park development and work on military reservations.

PATMAN BLOC GIRDS FOR BONUS CLIMAX

Showdown Will Come Next Week After Measure Is Vetoed by Roosevelt.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 10—Delaying the final struggle until next week, bonus leaders plunged today into a renewed effort to marshal every ounce of their strength in a last minute effort to save the Patman currency bill from defeat.

Methods that proved effective in defeating the April court protocols were called into play as veterans leaders sought to deluge the capital and the White House with a million or more telegrams from supporters.

President Roosevelt made no pronouncement though he conferred with financial advisers in what was generally regarded as a move to marshal statistics to aid a veto of the $2,000,000,000 bill. He did not mention the word "bonus" in a greeting he sent last night to St. Louis, where the convention committee for the forthcoming 1936 American Legion conclave was in session.

"War veterans are and should be interested in the welfare of the country as a whole," he said. "Our constant objective is to care for the disabled, the sick and destitute American Legionnaires and the veterans of all wars support this national policy."

The inflationary bill, which has passed both houses of congress, remained bottled up in the senate while its backers sought support. Private senate polls had indicated that a veto would be sustained possibly by as many as five or six votes.

Sen. Thomas, Democrat of Oklahoma, Patmanite leader, whose motion for a reconsideration keeps the bill in the senate, did not plan to release it for its journey to the White House until next week.

SECRECY VEILS THEIR POSITION

Squadron of 48 Ships Bound for Midway Isle May Be Down Elsewhere

OFFICIALS NOT FEARFUL

Craft Were To Take Part in Naval Maneuvers Over Triangular Area

By The Associated Press

HONOLULU, May 10—Official secrecy veiled in silence today the whereabouts of 46 navy seaplanes on a trailblazing mass flight to Midway Island, 1,323 miles away.

As the hours passed with no information made public by navy officials speculation grew that the huge air fleet, greatest flying group ever assembled for such a flight, possibly stopped at French Frigate shoals, 500 miles distant, or at Pearl Harbor and Hermes reef, 100 miles from Midway.

Rain was falling and a 45 mile wind was blowing at Midway when the airmen began taking off from Pearl Harbor at 7:18 a. m. (1:48 p. m. eastern standard time) Thursday, lending credence to the belief the planes might have stopped at some intermediate point.

No Data Given Out

There is no means of communication between here and the shoals or Pearl and Hermes reef and since radio silence is maintained at Pearl Harbor there is no immediate way of determining the air fleet's whereabouts.

Ten to 12 hours had been estimated as the time necessary for the flight to Midway Island.

The takeoff was without a hitch, and despite the silence of officials in revealing whereabouts of the armada there was nothing to indicate any fears were felt for its safety.

The changing positions of the 46 ships as they sped over the trackless Pacific where no other plane ever had ventured was believed known to forces of the United States navy now maneuvering in a 5,000,000-square mile triangle of the north Pacific in their 1935 war games.

Ships Play at War

Somewhere in the triangle bounded by Hawaii, the mainland and the Aleutian islands, the 153 ships of the fleet are carrying out training problems of which the flight was only one phase.

Radios on the fighting craft have been silent since this mighty force put to sea from Pacific ports a week ago and the exact problems undertaken will remain official naval secrets.

It was learned the planes will be away from here about one month, giving rise to the belief some of them may continue northward from Midway to the Aleutian Islands, about 1,700 miles farther.

450 VENDORS FILE SALES TAX RETURNS

1,747 Must Make Report Before End of Month; Inspector Helps

Approximately 450 of Marion county's 1,747 licensed vendors have filed sales tax returns which they must prepare by the end of this month, Floyd Cornely, Marion county sales tax examiner, reported today.

Mr. Cornely, who has been maintaining a temporary office in the rooms of the county commissioners to assist vendors in preparation of their returns, said he plans to open the office at night beginning Monday.

Office hours starting Monday will be 8 to 11:30 a. m., 1 to 5 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. to 9 p. m., Mr. Cornely said. He added that no charge is made to help prepare returns.

He said the temporary office will not be open Wednesday afternoon because of arrangements he has made to be at the Caledonia town hall to help vendors of that community prepare their returns.

No More Room

(Will Rogers Special)

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., May 10. As this editorial goes to press we have 46 naval planes headed from Honolulu to Midway Island. This flight is not only going to be great training for the navy fliers, but it's going to drive millions of Americans to a geography. The reason they didn't send 50 planes was there is only room on the island for 46.

The way you tell a navy plane from an army plane is the naval planes are made to land on the land and the army has the ones that are made to land on the water.

These boys are getting over there pretty close to Japan.

I look for the next Japanese maneuvers to be held off Catalina Island. Yours,

Will Rogers.

IG OHIO CITIES PAY OST OF SALES TAX

o Thirds of Revenue Comes From Eight Largest Counties.

COLUMBUS, O., May —Who s the largest portion of the 3 cent sales tax?

Answer: The people in Ohio's big ies.

This was revealed in an analysis state treasurer's reports showing during the first 13 weeks the has been collected two-thirds revenue came from the state's largest counties. The popu- in those counties however, only slightly more than one-half of the entire state.

date approximately $120,0- has been collected under the tax. More than $5,200,000 of sum was collected in Cuya- Hamilton, Franklin, Lucas, ning, Montgomery, Stark and counties.

The state's population at the 1930 was 6,600,000 and the popu- of those eight counties total- 3,570,000 or slightly more than half of the total population.

However, the fact that one-half people are paying two-thirds the tax was not regarded as un- by R. P. Barthalow, chief of sales tax division.

Barthalow pointed out that peo- rural districts raise a great of their own food. On the hand, he said, payrolls in the are larger than in the coun- areas and people in the cities more money to spend.

Based on collections during the 13 weeks, the per capital payment of the tax in Ohio averaged $1.51. It varied from $2.37 per capita in the state's largest (Cuyahoga) county, down to 50 cents in Ohio's smallest (Vinton) county.

TALK BY TRAVELER IS SCHEDULED HERE

Unit Leader of World Peace Expedition Arranges Date for Aloha Wanderwell.

Lieut. E. W. Owen, unit leader in a series of expeditions whose purpose is described "to promote world peace," was in Marion today to make arrangements for an early appearance here of Aloha Wanderwell, widely traveled wife of Capt. Walter Wanderwell globe trotter.

The expeditions are sponsored by the "Work Around the World Educational Club," the object of which is to form a base for the legal formation of an international police force, according to Lieut. Owen.

The expedition has already visited more than 50 countries, the unit leader said. "The expeditions are designed to promote peace propaganda, and to carry on research work to discover the best methods of doing the most toward bettering the understanding between races and nations," he explained. The expedition is now launched on a three-year tour to cover the major countries of the world in an effort to help solve the problem of war or peace.

A definite date has not yet been set for the appearance in Marion of Aloha Wanderwell. She is expected the latter part of next week or the following week.

Everything from Soap to Scrapbooks On Display At Annual Hobby Show

If it were a dinner party the guests would say there was everything "from soup to nuts" but it's a hobby and handicraft show at the Y. M. C. A. this week and the visitors can truthfully say there's everything there "from soap to scrapbooks." It's the largest exhibit ever made at the Y.

The exhibit got underway yesterday afternoon and last night with a large group of visitors—it will continue today and Saturday from 4 to 9 p. m., free to the public.

The number and variety of the displays all contributed by school boys and girls of the city is astonishing to the visitor and gives an excellent answer to the question, "What are the young people doing with their leisure time?"

Some 300 different exhibits are to be found in the second floor gymnasium. Judging for awards started yesterday afternoon and will be completed today.

One of the sweetest smelling spots in the gym is the space in which one young collector has on display his collection of soaps from hotel rooms—a far cheaper hobby for the hotels than towels and bath mats. Three or four of the hobbyists have collections of match folders, and in one, by a little rapid figuring there are not many under 850 different folders, all neatly displayed on a special rack.

Nature Exhibit

An outstanding and really worthwhile display is that of a boy interested in nature. Hours, months, years of "riding" his hobby are evident in his collection of cocoons, mosses, moths, butterflies, insects, fossils and fossil rock, pressed flowers, common stones found in Ohio, glass jars and cocoons, and an aquarium.

The art display is larger than usual this year, too, and includes pencil, ink, crayon, and oil subjects, cartoons, plaques, art drawings of maps and formal designs.

There is an electric train model that will run, a motor boat model to be propelled by rubber bands, a beautiful U. S. army plane model built to a scale with a complete instrument board, a display made by one boy to show the progress of the steam steel battleships, the Napoleonic coach which won a $1,000 scholarship for Thomas Clark Jr. of Mt. Vernon avenue, two airport hangars with the necessary equipment, 50 miniature soldiers cast in lead by some enterprising youth, birdhouses, embroidery work, quilt tops, dresses—old and newly made, a collection of miniatures, a zoo, a Swedish newspaper and Christmas card, buttons that leave the observer sure of "Who's got the button," herds of elephants of all sizes, kennels of miniature dogs, and even a collection of bus checks from many cities in the United States and as far away as Honolulu and England.

Collection of Keys

An interesting collection of keyes includes one to an old Chinese opium den, the escutcheon from the old Marion courthouse, handmade keys from Mexico, keys from Italy, California and Pennsylvania, a key used in a warehouse at Placerville, Calif., during the gold rush of '49, an Erie railroad key 50 years old and a 75-year-old key used on the old N. Y. P. & O. railroad.

The scrapbooks are revelations of time and indefatigable searching. One girl used a wall paper sample book for her pictures of movie stars, another used three leather-bound books for an intensely interesting and educational collection of Ohioans, including every county in the state with interesting items about each and pictures; there are several cartons, four on sports contributed by one boy, several of picture postcards, and one of the R. J. See cartoons which are a daily feature of the editorial page of The Star.

The doll collections include two dolls from Russia, one minute doll on a scarf pin that requires a magnifying glass to make its careful workmanship plainly visible and several collections of doll furniture.

One boy has a collection of ribbon badges from over the country that makes the observer wonder where he ever dug them up—there are so many of them and they're all from such interesting places. Another boy has made a collection of the stripes won by his father in service overseas, and still another has made a collection of button badges.

The stamp collections this year are considered by older persons who know, far superior to any in previous exhibits. They are neatly arranged, and contain some valuable stamps—not messy collections of just any kind of stamps.

Old guns, Indian relics, bullets, an army sabre, a plug of tobacco 35 years old and a tintype 80 years old are to be found.

The coin collections are interesting, too, including as they do Confederate treasury notes, old fractional currency, Chinese coins, Cuban currency, and coins from virtually every foreign country.

Several collectors who can "take it" have made hobbies of collecting the sales tax stamps.

Collections of the different kinds of woods are hobbies several boys have begun.

All in all there's a little bit of everything in the exhibit, which is being sponsored by the Marion Hobby club, the Kiwanis club, Rotary club, and public and parochial schools, in cooperation with the Y. M. C. A.

The committee in charge is composed of Dr. F. A. Stengel, president of the Marion Hobby club and general chairman of the exhibit, Miss Elizabeth Conley, Miss Grace Colvin, Miss Mary Kull, O. C. Lee, D. N. Bohyer, Herman Rech, Emil Schwem, Harold Alexander, Gene Gunder, Ralph Carhart and Earl N. Hale, general secretary of the Y.

PROGRAM GIVEN BY EPWORTH SOCIETY

Follows Dinner as Observance of Mother's Day.

A covered dish dinner and program marked the observance of Mother's day when the Women's Foreign Missionary society of Epworth M. E. church met last night in the junior room of the church. Guests were the Standard Bearers society and Go Ye Therefore circle. Covers were placed for 75. The dinner was preceded by a business meeting held by the society.

Mrs. L. S. Irey, president of the hostess society, welcomed the guests and Mrs. A. W. Newby presided for a program, which opened with a group of three numbers by a sextet from the East Side Mother Singers. Mrs. Newby conducted the devotional service and Mrs. J. B. Ellis gave a reading. A toast to "My Son" was given by Mrs. F. O. Irwin and Miss Mary Heininger and Mrs. Homer Mitchell sang a duet, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. F. A. Boyer.

Miss Naomi Uncapher, a charter member of the Standard Bearers, gave a talk, "Bridge Building," and Miss Jean Burns and Miss Lois George played a piano duet. A talk on the organization of the Standard Bearers was given by Mrs. Adam Bauer and Mrs. Edwin Cheney, sponsor of the group, gave a short talk. The organization of the Go Ye Therefore circle was told in a talk by Miss Pauline Merriman, president.

A demonstration of a Japanese ceremonial was presented by Misses Pauline Rule, Dorothy Snyder, Pauline Merriman, Esther Williams and Mrs. Edwin Cheney. Miss Helen Conolly assisted as reader and Miss Elizabeth Pace presided at the piano. The next meeting will be June 13.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL.

Charles Knapp of Agosta was admitted to the City hospital yesterday for medical treatment.

MOTHER, DAUGHTER PROGRAM IS GIVEN

Follows Annual Dinner at Trinity Baptist Church.

Six men from the Brotherhood served the annual mother and daughter dinner last night at Trinity Baptist church. Ninety women and girls were present. Tulips and white spring flowers decorated the tables.

Miss Cerrelda Yazel presided as toastmaster, Mrs. Lawrence A. Wood offered the table blessing, after which Rev. Lawrence A. Wood, pastor, gave the address of welcome. The program continued as follows: toast to mothers, Doris Mae Davis; toast to daughters, Mrs. J. P. Thatcher; two violin numbers, Mary Ella Middleton, accompanied at the piano by Miss Bernita LeMasters; two poems, Mrs. Troy McClure; two vocal selections by Miss LeMasters and Mrs. Caroll Schmidt, accompanied at the piano by Miss Mildred Duffey; readings, Carolyn Faught; two piano selections, Miss Duffey; memorial service for mothers who died since the last dinner, Mrs. Mark Baker; memorial hymn, Miss LeMasters and Mrs. Schmidt; benediction, Mrs. Gerald Roberts.

Mrs. Thatcher, president of the Women's Missionary society, was general chairman of arrangements and Miss Yazel, president of the Senior World Wide guild, was program chairman. Mrs. Ray Hemmerly and Mrs. Allen Middleton were in charge of the dining room, assisted by women of the missionary society.

"THAT NERVOUS ANDERSON CHILD"

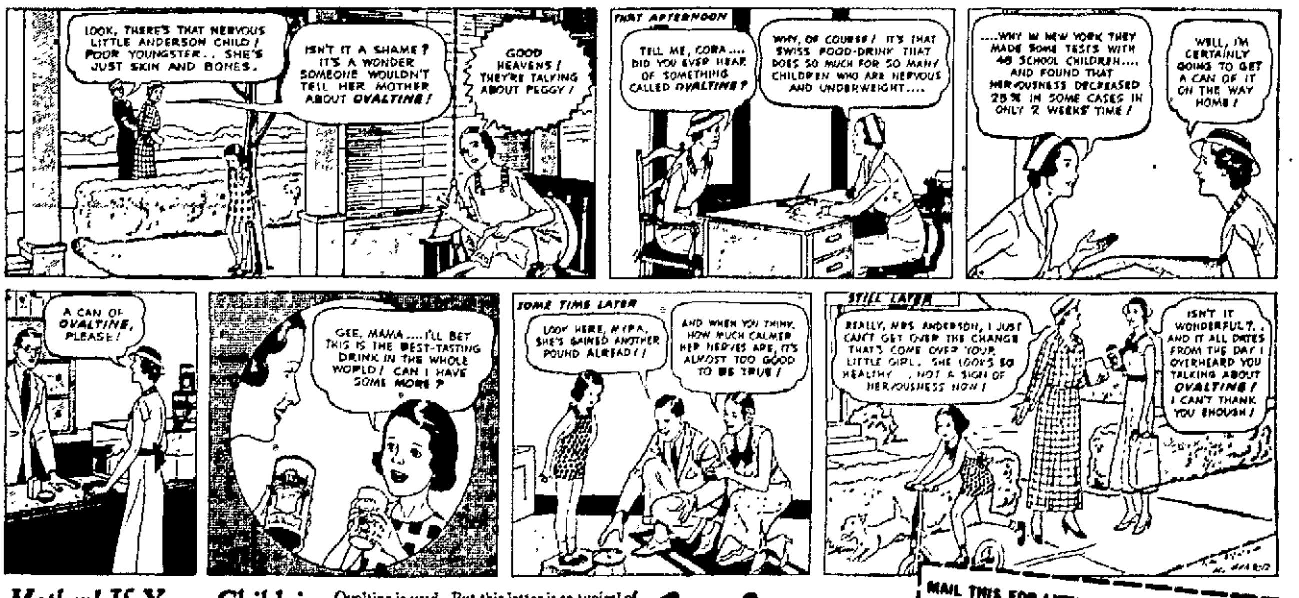
—AND HOW HER MOTHER BROKE UP THE VICIOUS CIRCLE OF NERVES-AND-UNDERWEIGHT



LOOK, THERE'S THAT NERVOUS LITTLE ANDERSON CHILD! POOR YOUNGSTER.. SHE'S JUST SKIN AND BONES.
ISN'T IT A SHAME? IT'S A WONDER SOMEONE WOULDN'T TELL HER MOTHER ABOUT OVALTINE!
GOOD HEAVENS! THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT PEGGY!
THAT AFTERNOON
TELL ME, CORA.... DID YOU EVER HEAR OF SOMETHING CALLED OVALTINE?
WHY, OF COURSE! IT'S THAT SWISS FOOD-DRINK THAT DOES SO MUCH FOR SO MANY CHILDREN WHO ARE NERVOUS AND UNDERWEIGHT....
....WHY IN NEW YORK THEY MADE SOME TESTS WITH 48 SCHOOL CHILDREN.... AND FOUND THAT NERVOUSNESS DECREASED 25% IN SOME CASES IN ONLY 2 WEEKS' TIME!
WELL, I'M CERTAINLY GOING TO GET A CAN OF IT ON THE WAY HOME!
A CAN OF OVALTINE, PLEASE!
GEE, MAMA....I'LL BET THIS IS THE BEST-TASTING DRINK IN THE WHOLE WORLD! CAN I HAVE SOME MORE?
SOME TIME LATER
LOOK HERE, MYRA, SHE'S GAINED ANOTHER POUND ALREADY!
AND WHEN YOU THINK HOW MUCH CALMER HER NERVES ARE, IT'S ALMOST TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE!
STILL LATER
REALLY, MRS. ANDERSON, I JUST CAN'T GET OVER THE CHANGE THAT'S COME OVER YOUR LITTLE GIRL. SHE LOOKS SO HEALTHY ... NOT A SIGN OF NERVOUSNESS NOW!
ISN'T IT WONDERFUL?.. AND IT ALL DATES FROM THE DAY I OVERHEARD YOU TALKING ABOUT OVALTINE! I CAN'T THANK YOU ENOUGH!

Mother! If Your Child is Nervous or Underweight

—By All Means, Try Ovaltine

OVALTINE is a delicious pure food concentrate, created in Switzerland (now made in the U. S. A.)—and approved by thousands of physicians. It is particularly valued because of the noticeable increases in appetite, weight and nerve poise which are so frequently reported when Ovaltine is added to the daily diet.

For example, Mrs. Bessie C. Marvin, 155 Union Ave., Bridgeport, Conn., writes —"My little girl has always been nervous and would not eat. I got a can of Ovaltine and she was just crazy about it. The first week she gained 2½ pounds."

This letter covers, of course, only one individual case. And we do not claim or guarantee that similar results will occur in every case when Ovaltine is used. But this letter is so typical of thousands, that we feel a thorough trial of Ovaltine is justified by every intelligent mother in similar cases of nervousness and underweight.

You simply give Ovaltine mixed with milk—either hot or cold—and children love its delicious taste. Obtainable at all drug, grocery and department stores.

—FOR BOYS AND GIRLS—

Get this wonderful Orphan Annie shake-up mug—made of Beetleware—with beautiful colored pictures of Little Orphan Annie and Sandy, her dog, right on it—ABSOLUTELY FREE to Ovaltine users.

Here's how to get it —First cut out and fill in the coupon at the right. Then get a can of Ovaltine. After you get it, take out all of the thin aluminum seal under the lid of the can and mail it, together with coupon at right. Then, in a few days, the postman will bring you a Little Orphan Annie mug absolutely free!

Bulls Take Hold After Brief Spell of Profit Taking in Early Trade

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 10—The stock market rested a while in the early part of today s session also bel[illegible] moderate realizing which [illegible] a per[illegible] ceptible struggle [illegible] then continued on its way to higher territory.

Bullish forces seemed to have the upper hand Rising elevators [illegible] giver a run to a brief [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] were taken in hand for an [illegible] Scattered specialties also pushed forward briskly

Staples Fail to Follow

Grains were unimpressive and cotton was subjected to profit taking after its sharp spurt of yesterday Bonds shifted in uncertain trend U S government s were inclined to ease Foreign exchanges were narrow

Shares getting up [illegible] point or so included American Telephone Peoples Gas Consolidated Gas Public Service of New Jersey U S Smelting Cerro De Pasco Inland Steel McKeesport Tin Plate Corn Products and Johns Manville

The oils were still in demand with Standards of New Jersey and California Texas Corp Consolidated and Seaboard improving fractionally The rails were [illegible] buoyant but Santa Fe Union Pacific New York Central and others firmed U S Steel Bethlehem Case Du Pont Chrysler General Motors and American Can were somewhat higher Aircrafts were also better

Expectancy that the fate of the utilities legislation now pending in congress will soon be known and that the worst fears regarding the holding company restrictions may not be realized was thought to have attracted renewed participation in this group Followers of silvers were not shaken in their belief that the treasury will soon boost the domestic rate again

Silver Price Higher

At the same time the New York price of imported bar silver for commercial use was lifted [illegible] of a cent an ounce to 72¼ cents and increases were also reported from London and Montreal

Announcement that U S Steel s April shipments were off 70,378 tons from the March total did not surprise analytical quarters where it had been known that the automobile manufacturers had already more than filled their near term requirements in view of labor unsettlement

Freight car loadings for the week ended May 4 showed a cheerful gain of 10,179 over the previous week s aggregate

CLAUDETTE COLBERT PLAYS FINE ROLE IN "PRIVATE WORLDS"

[illegible] and [illegible] the Palace [illegible] Private Worlds [illegible] The picture is highly recommended [illegible] Saturday.

[illegible] the story of Claudette Colbert [illegible] a tragic love affair [illegible] one of the world's [illegible] She [illegible] given consideration by the men on the basis of her [illegible] Charles Boyer a French [illegible] is appointed superintendent, a position which Miss Colbert's co-worker and close friend Joel McCrea had hoped for and [illegible] institution with his [illegible] of-the-field sister Helen Vinson.

Miss Colbert and McCrea [illegible] Boyer but Miss Colbert goes about her work efficiently until one [illegible] she sees Boyer comforting a dying Arab and she knows that he [illegible] has been [illegible] no [illegible] McCrea deeply resentful over the appointment starts an affair with Miss Vinson which nearly wrecks his career and his home. Joan Bennett in the role of his young wife about to be come a mother [illegible] strikingly vivid portrayal [illegible] night her mind gives way [illegible] she has [illegible] the affair. She is saved by an operation performed by Miss Colbert and Boyer and McCrea is brought to his senses. He realizes that Miss Colbert and Boyer are deeply in love but imprisoned by their private world [illegible] the memory of a shattered earlier romance and his mistrust of all women because of his sister's character. McCrea goes to him, they swear a lasting friendship and McCrea sends him to Miss Colbert. Miss Colbert was never better in her life than in this role and Boyer, McCrea, Miss Bennett and a large cast of competent bit players give her sound support. Short subjects complete the bill. H H

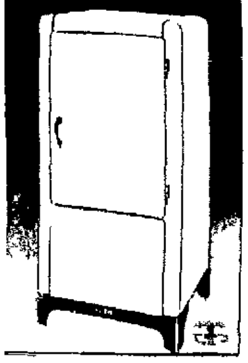
NORGE

Rollator refrigeration

surplus powered

to give you "more cold than you'll ever need"

WITH SAVINGS UP TO $11 a month



IT'S a fact that Norge is able to chill foods and freeze ice at very high room temperatures higher than you will ever find in your kitchen.

That reserve of cooling power is your assurance of constant dependable cold. Because of it you can buy perishable foods in bargain quantities with perfect confidence that nothing will spoil. Left-overs can be kept as long as you like.

Moreover, since the Rollator mechanism never has to work to capacity it uses less current. Thus you enjoy a saving in refrigeration costs as well as the savings in food. Norge owners report savings up to $11 a month.

See the Norge. Even a showroom inspection will convince you that it is the refrigerator you've always wanted to own. Visit the Norge dealer near you and prove it to yourself.

THE AMERICAN FARMER IN 1935

New Yorker Sees Better Times Ahead

[illegible] in a series of eight articles
BY BEN WICKERSHAM
(Of The Associated Press)

[illegible]

[illegible] Rensselaer county [illegible] fruit farmer and [illegible] believes [illegible] agriculture [illegible] bought [illegible] one [illegible] as good [illegible] late as or better than [illegible] farmer today.

Milk Control Good

[illegible] acre farm of [illegible] to sandy loam soil, 20 [illegible] are devoted to apple [illegible] peach orchards and the rest [illegible] to grain, hay crops, pasture [illegible] grape vineyards.

[illegible] prospects for the future he [illegible] the laws of supply and demand [illegible] the only things which [illegible] will govern the price a [illegible] will receive for his product [illegible] of the price pegging [illegible] of the government.

[illegible] on the contrary, how [illegible] much good in the work [illegible] the New York state milk control board in its effort to raise the price the farmer receives for milk. He views the work as a temporary expedient, however.

Finch blames a faulty distribution system for the present farm price structure. He argues there is over [illegible] at [illegible] one hand offset by [illegible] shortage on the other.

Same As Last Year

[illegible] is doing anything for the farm, he declares, the organization [illegible] of purpose in the attack on our problems must come from the farmers themselves, not [illegible] from above by a [illegible] of the [illegible] careers.

Finch expects that while [illegible] the present he looks [illegible] the future with the [illegible] feeling that times are going to get better.

[illegible] Finch believes he is [illegible] as most other New York farmers is [illegible] practically the same boat as last year.

Present conditions are hard [illegible] he says, and [illegible] as to how much the farmer can [illegible] Last year was $20 a ton [illegible] and this spring dropped to $[illegible] so you can see how much we [illegible] on this one item.

Feed Costs Rising

My apples are selling [illegible] 60 and 75 cents a bushel. I ought to get $1 a bushel to break even and $1.50 to make money.

To add to our milk problems the cost of feed is rising as a result of the western droughts.

As to the price the farmer should receive for his milk, Finch believes the farmer should receive 50 per cent of the retail price in order to make a good livelihood.

Finch raises his own farm produce for consumption by his wife, a growing son and himself.

He has not treated himself or his family to any luxuries for the last few years. As he expresses it: I am satisfied to eat, keep a house over my head and pay my taxes.

Perhaps John Finch's dairy herd would not eye him so placidly if they could be aware of his observation that while the price paid for milk is inadequate the price of beef is high and apparently still soaring.

ELISSA LANDI GETS DIVORCE FROM MATE

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, May 17—Elissa Landi, film star and writer of fiction and verse, was granted a divorce yesterday from John Cecil Lawrence, London barrister, whom she charged with causing her great mental suffering by his alleged unconventional views on married life.

- The - Marry-Go-Round

BY HELEN ROWLAND

THE INARTICULATE MALE

When you start out on a motor trip with a woman at the wheel you know that you will get there provided her breath holds out.

But when you start out for a strange destination with a man at the wheel it is all a delightful guessing game. If you wind up anywhere within 40 miles of your objective you win.

This is because a man would sooner die clutching his road map than to ask the way. For some deep dark unfathomable reason a man would rather be caught stealing sheep or cutting his own hair than to lower his morale by admitting that he is on the wrong road. It would break his spirit.

A woman seldom bothers to take a road map. She hasn't any time to study one and anyhow she is too busy asking questions. She can go farther on a [illegible] and quicker on a powder puff and the strength of her own voice than a man can on seven road maps.

To a man a policeman is something to get past. But to a woman a policeman is just something to answer questions. She often stops and ask his advice about the roads even when she knows them by heart. Why waste a perfectly good policeman?

But a man will go out of his way rather than demean himself by admitting that a blue cap and [illegible] give any other man the authority to tell him anything. When it comes to advice he believes firmly that it is better to give than to receive and that's his guiding principle.

Many a woman has driven half a day beside a graven image with sealed lips and a famished look in his eyes as he swept haughtily past filling stations, drug stores, intelligent looking people and scores of traffic cops—only to discover that he was off the road.

You know how it is. He will argue about it, park the car and try to figure it out, turn around, detour and retrace, but never never will he give it up and inquire.

Only when a man is hopelessly lost and beaten and the woman beside him is weeping for food is he reduced to that state of exhaustion and humility where he is willing to expose his ignorance and admit that he is willing to take a stranger's advice.

But if you love him, never drive him to it. Never shatter a man's superiority complex by making him truckle to a traffic officer or admit that there is something that he doesn't know.

Knights of Pythias and is an active member of the Bucyrus Country club

Third Man for Post

During the time Judge Miller was Bucyrus city solicitor the Logan gas rate controversy was at its height

He is the third man named to the liquor directorship by Mr Davey in the four months he has been governor

Davey announced Oakley Spaght of Stow near Akron as his choice but withdrew the appointment when Spaght was found to be ineligible He then named Burk who resigned in the face of a quo warranto action in the state supreme court to oust him

During the uncertainty attendant on Spaght's selection and until Burk took office Joseph H Scobell an appointee of former Governor White held the directorship The governor said Scobell would be retained in the department in an advisory capacity but the Cleveland man who served as assistant director while Col John A Hughes was director has not been connected with the liquor monopoly for two months

Burk the governor said when the former resigned will be retained in the department in a responsible position This is expected to be the $5 000 a year job of supervisor of liquor stores

Judge Miller Saturday will become the second Bucyrus man holding positions high in official circles of the state Charles F Schaber who like Judge Miller held the offices of Crawford county probate judge and city solicitor and who likewise was prominently active in Crawford county Democratic circles many years is now serving as member of the public utilities commission

He was appointed by former Governor White on Dec 30 1933 to fill the unexpired term of John W Bricker who resigned to become attorney general and two months later was reappointed to the six year term

QUICK WORK NEEDED TO PROVIDE PENSIONS

amusement tax would bring in $4 500 000 and the finance concern levy $2 500 000 which would equal the amount needed for six months of pensions

His solicitude for the highway revenues was not shared by Rep Carl F Wintzer Democrat of Auglaize who said the department could stand a slash of $6 000 000 He asserted that Ohio's roads are better than those of 90 per cent of the other states

An attack on Gov Davey by Rep Thomas A Christy Democrat of Monroe added another angle to the situation Christy told the committee that confidence in this administration is being weakened because of [illegible] in attempting to bring about economies to which it is pledged

Christy also advocated payment of pensions out of present state revenues

The [illegible] in adjournment until Tuesday will have but a short time in which to formulate a stop gap means of continuing pensions if they are continued

The assembly is due to begin a summer vacation next Thursday preliminary to sine die adjournment with the prospect of being called back into special session in early autumn One of its tasks then would be to decide on a permanent pension finance system

But unless a temporary plan can be agreed on in two days next week pensioners may receive no money for several months

MARYSVILLE FACES WATER SERVICE LOSS

Company Files Plea With State to Shut Off Hydrants Due to Debt

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE May 10 — The Ohio Water Service Co operators of the local water plant filed an application with the state public utilities commission in Columbus Wednesday to shut off fire protection water service in Marysville because the city is in debt to the company

A public hearing on the application has been set for June 11 at 10 a m

Marysville owes the company $17 907 72

The company states in the application that by discontinuing fire protection service it can reduce pumping operations from 24 hours a day to eight hours a day with operating expenses thereby being lowered

The action brings to a head the debt question in Marysville It may result in negotiations which would result in cleaning up the debt and fixing future hydrant rates at a figure that Marysville can meet monthly out of funds available for operating expenses of the town with a pair of ragged pants he complained in semi jocular vein as he noticed a torn place in the garment

Needs Suspenders

'And where are my suspenders? My hips are so small that my breeches will probably fall off if someone can't find them

The suspenders were found and given to him

Palmer's last moments were in contrast to Hamilton's nervousness Long ago resigned to death he attempted to wisecrack as he entered the execution chamber but the effort fell a little flat

He faltered noticeably however in reading a prepared statement thanking Father Hugh Finnegan prison chaplain for favors

Hamilton's body was sent to Dallas at the request of the desperado's mother Mrs Steve Davis Palmer's body was sent to San Antonio

Three Pay in Chair For Illinois Killing

By The Associated Press

JOLIET Ill May 10 The state satisfied its demand of a life for a life today with the electrocution of three men who participated in the killing of three others during an attempted bank robbery

Technically the switch was thrown in the old state penitentiary only to expiate the murder of J Charles Bundy cashier at the Lenore Ill State bank because the three gunmen who survived the fight which preceded their capture were not tried for the deaths of two others

Those electrocuted within a 19 minute span shortly after 1 a m (central standard time) today were Fred Gerner 2[illegible] and Arthur Thielen [illegible] of both of Rockford Ill and John Hauff 3[illegible] Chicago

All went to the chair seemingly calm and gave their last breath to pleas for forgiveness from God and their victims survivors

Gerner was pronounced dead at 1 03 o'clock after three minutes in the chair Hauff followed him and was pronounced dead at 1 12 o'clock also after three minutes Thielen sat in the chair four and a half minutes and was declared dead at 1 19 a m

In addition to Bundy their victims were Sheriff Glen Axtie of Marshall county and Charles Sopp a township supervisor

A seventh death resulting from the raid was the suicide of Melvin Leist of Rockford fourth member of the robber band who shot himself after a posse surrounded the killers in a farm house near Varna Ill

Title 2 Explained

Two of the three titles of the omnibus banking measure deal with technical amendments to the deposit insurance act and to the national bank act federal reserve act the banking act of 1933 and other statutes

Title 2 which provided the fireworks would bring the whole federal reserve system more directly under government controls in the following ways

By making the governor and vice governor of the federal reserve board removable at will by the President of the United States Under present law they are designated for specific terms

By making the governors of the federal reserve banks subject to approval of the reserve board every three years The governors of the reserve banks under present law are elected annually by their own boards of directors to which they are responsible

By making the reserve board at Washington the open market committee of the reserve system and by making its decision as to purchase and sale of government bonds mandatory on all reserve banks At present the open market committee consists of a committee of bank governors whose policies are not mandatory on the banks

By enabling the reserve board at Washington to raise or lower reserve requirements of member banks at will Under present law reserve requirement may be raised or lowered over statutory limits only in emergencies and by vote of five members of the reserve board with consent of the President

BAER SHOT BY BLANK IN RADIO REHEARSAL

Burn Painful But Not Serious, Actress Also Suffers Face Injury

By The Associated Press

ASBURY PARK N J May 10 Max Baer heavyweight boxing champion suffered a painful but not severe burn yesterday when a blank cartridge pistol was discharged near him while he was rehearsing a radio sketch in a hotel here

Baer was treated at Hazard hospital Long Branch together with Peg La Centra also in the sketch who was burned on the face Miss La Centra returned to New York and Baer to his Long Branch camp

The fighter had just completed his first outdoor workout in preparation for his forthcoming championship bout with James J Braddock and had gone to the hotel to rehearse his program before dinner he said afterward in describing the accident

Shots and sirens are used for sound effects in the detective serial in which he is the principal Baer accompanied by Jerry Casale former New Jersey fight promoter who now is associated with the Baer camp was jokingly complaining that the shots fired by Al Stanton sound effect man for the broadcasting company were not loud enough

Casale who serves as a guard at Baer's Long Branch home drew his gun loaded with blanks and was showing it to Baer when it exploded

Wadding struck the fighter over the heart and the fire penetrated his clothing

At his home the champion declared he had not been hurt badly Ancil Hoffman his manager expressed concern however because his charge's training campaign may not be resumed for a day or two

OFFICERS CONTINUE HUNT FOR ROBINSON

Hoover Orders Justice Department Men To Keep Up Search for Kidnaper

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON May 10—Justice department agents today pressed their seven month hunt for Thomas H Robinson Jr alleged kidnaper despite police rumors that Robinson is dead

The chief basis for this theory among officers is that none of the [illegible]0 000 ransom paid to Robinson late in 1934 has been found with the exception of $500 he is said to have given his wife in Indianapolis She accompanied the released kidnap victim Mrs Alice Speed Stoll on her return to Louisville Ky until they were halted by federal agents

J Edgar Hoover director of the federal bureau of investigation said today his men will keep up the hunt for Robinson until it is definitely established that he is dead

Hoover said the search has been one of the most difficult in the series of kidnaping because Robinson is a lone wolf

He often wore women's clothing Hoover said He had no known friends or companions He was not associated with other suspects and avoided the usual centers that attract criminals

[illegible] probably watched the newspapers closely officers said and they suggested his fear might have caused him to take his life Another threat over Robinson was the announcement by Thomas J [illegible] federal attorney at Louisville that Robinson faced the death penalty under the Lindbergh act

CONTINUE CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN NEXT WEEK

Rainy Weather Necessitates Extension of City Fix Up Program

The city's annual city wide clean up and fix up campaign will be extended throughout next week Service Director C R Mercer announced today

Because of the rainy weather attending the opening of the clean up it is necessary that the time be extended if the expected results are to be produced Mr Mercer said

That interest in the drive has increased during the last two days is indicated by the large number of telephone calls to the service department for city trucks to pick up rubbish at homes in all sections of the city A small fee is being charged to those who are not subscribers to the city garbage service Residents are urged to clean up their premises as quickly and thoroughly as possible and telephone Mr Mercer at [illegible] A truck will collect the rubbish which is to be placed in baskets or cans at the curb in front of the home

The service director again called attention today to a misunderstanding on the part of some that the city trucks are canvassing the city and collecting rubbish without charge as has been done in previous years Lack of funds this year is given as the reason for the change in policy in the annual spring drive

PANTIES A PROBLEM

Demonstration of Invisible Attire Baffles Board

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO May 10—A request for permission to use demonstrations in the sale of invisible panties is one of the many problems confronting the NRA both in Washington and Chicago when the petition of Invisilette Inc manufacturers of these items asking to be excepted from the code regulation forbidding demonstrators was laid in the lap of the industries appeals board

It caused the board to demand to know how the panties could be demonstrated if they were invisible and whether or not if they were visible the manufacturers hadn't been violating the code of misrepresentation

Mrs Marcella McCracken inventor of the panties explained that they were not quite invisible but that they were made of a sheer waterproofed but devoid of rubber Japanese silk so transparent that bold faced type could be read through the garment

She also explained that demonstrators in the lingerie line didn't necessarily model the garments but might explain them to prospective customers

She said: "I suffered so terribly from [illegible] that I had completely lost the use of my left hand. I have been suffering for ten years and tried most everything I heard of that was recommended for this condition.

"I also had headaches, sore muscles and my limbs were so achy I was up several times every night. My entire system seemed sluggish and filled with poisons. I [illegible] and [illegible] was [illegible] nothing [illegible]. A great [illegible] had [illegible] and was never free of constipation.

"My daughter insisted that I try Vendol as it was doing so much good all around here, so I got some and also a box of the little Vendol laxative tablets.

"[illegible] noticed that my bowels were [illegible] and in a week the pains were decidedly less. [illegible] Vendol [illegible] of [illegible] been relieved. I am [illegible] and my muscles are free of pain than I've known for years.

"Vendol has cleared my system thoroughly and just made me feel like a new woman."

Many remedies give temporary relief [illegible] thousands of local people have discovered that Vendol does more than that. Vendol gets to the root of your trouble. Nine times out of ten it is the stomach, liver, bowels or the kidneys and by removing the cause brings permanent relief. All over this section you will find the very best people who have been restored to health and comfort by taking Vendol.

Come meet the Vendol Man who is now at W. N. Sams Pharmacy, 121 S. Main Street, where he is daily meeting local men and women and explaining the merits of this great root and herb medicine. There is no charge, so come today if possible.—Adv.

MISHAP BRINGS MAN SUCCESS

Blast Takes Sight. Hands But Youth Fights Way To Success as Author.

By International News Service

DENVER — Seemingly insurmountable obstacles instead of discouraging Symphas C. Hanks set him on the road to success.

Thirty-six years ago he sat on the edge of a hospital bed in a [illegible] mining camp, eyes blown out, hands blown off and determined to make a success of the life he had so nearly lost.

Working in a mine near Hober [illegible] There was a sudden explo[illegible]

At [illegible] time Byron W. King, [illegible] of a school near Pittsburgh, Pa., came along lec[illegible]turing on an educational program and heard my story and became my friend.

Under the tutelage of King and with help from funds Hanks [illegible] he learned enough to enter Stanford university. From there he went to Harvard for a course in international law and economics.

Braille, the type which has brought reading to thousands of blind, was of no help to Hanks as he had no hands. Friends and secretaries read to him. He completed his work at Harvard and went on to Columbia for a course in psychology. By this time he was helping himself along financially.

From the experiences of his [illegible] he gleaned material for books which sold like proverbial hot cakes, providing money to pay debts incurred during his years of study. [illegible] he supports himself as author and lecturer.

"I learned to know people by their voices," he explained. "I've an idea of a man from his voice and I can know him for what he is."

This faculty has helped him [illegible] as much as eyes, he feels.

"To me the world is a grand and beautiful place for I always think of it as I knew it when I was a boy."

The present hardships which many persons are suffering because of economic maladjustments [illegible] since the Civil war [illegible] first war he [illegible]

HUGE BOMBING PLANE DEVELOPED FOR U. S.

Will Fly 3 000 Miles Without Stop While Carrying 2 500 Pounds of Explosives

By International News Service

WASHINGTON, May [illegible] — A giant bombing airplane capable of flying [illegible]000 miles without a stop at a speed of 225 miles an hour and carrying 2,500 pounds of explosives is being developed by the Douglas Aircraft Corp. of Santa Monica, Cal., for the army air corps.

If tests with the "battleship of the air" prove successful, the War department expects it to become the future backbone of America's military aviation. It will be to the air corps what the battleship is to the navy.

It represents the fastest and most powerful bomber of its type now in existence.

The air corps high command has come to the conclusion that this type of bomber will form the chief aerial [illegible] the United [illegible] a war with [illegible] enemy [illegible] craft carriers [illegible] American [illegible]

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

Disorders of Face Nerve

There are few of us who have escaped at least one attack of that form of neuralgia which the doctors call trigeminal neuralgia. As [the] name implies this is a disorder of the trigeminal nerve, one on each side of the face. As a rule [this] distressing condition is found [chiefly] in persons of middle life but [it] may affect any age group.

A broader knowledge of trigeminal neuralgia or tic douloureux, as it is also called, has been acquired by medical science within recent years. Despite this the [actual] cause and cure of this painful disturbance still remain [unknown]. Although trigeminal neuralgia was first described over a [century] ago by Dr. John Fothergill, little advancement has been [made in] its treatment.

The disturbance may be traced [to a] center of infection such as [diseased] teeth, tonsils and nasal [sinuses]. If infection exists the [cause] should be drained and proper treatment applied to clear up the [trouble]. After this relief is usually [obtained].

[Every] effort should be made to improve the general health and increase the resistance against infection. A well regulated routine of [living] is of the utmost importance. Sufficient rest, nourishing food, moderate exercise, freedom from worry—all these have their place in effecting a cure.

The victim of trigeminal neuralgia suffers from severe pain in the face. The pain is sudden in its [onset], recurring in spasms and [radiating] along the course of one [or] more branches of the nerve. As [a rule] the paroxysms of pain last [but] a few seconds. But the [severity] of the pain and its prostrating after effects make it a much dreaded affliction.

[Unlike] other neuralgic pain it is [increased] upon pressure or the slightest touch. Chewing, speaking or touching the side of the face may be sufficient to bring on an attack.

Do not confuse trigeminal neuralgia with other forms of facial neuralgia. Not frequently pain in the face or head may be the result of [eye strain], indigestion, localized infection [arising] from the teeth or nasal sinuses, [nerve] fatigue or some [other] cause. But there is a [characteristic] feature about trigeminal neuralgia which I want [you] to bear in mind. The sufferer [from this] affliction usually has [complete] relief from pain when he [is asleep] at night. Other pains about the head often persist during the night and prevent sleep.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

The Mothers

"P[illegible]" said Alison. "I shan't [illegible] you again [illegible] back. [illegible] of [illegible] back. You are at least [illegible] be d bitten female [illegible] of a nurse I knew who [illegible] all her patients be[illegible] the mere sight of her made [illegible]. By the way, are you [illegible]?"

[illegible] met his twinkling eyes [illegible] two dancing blue imps in [illegible] said haughtily. "Of [illegible] I am. To my fourth has[illegible] family."

[illegible] both laughed together. "[illegible] married?" she asked. "A burglar's life's too un[illegible] [illegible] an architect's [illegible] had [illegible] involve only you and [illegible] all. And you?"

"[illegible] and myself. Until," Alison added with a little [illegible], "[illegible] You told me. Your [illegible] getting remarried. Do you [illegible]?"

"[illegible] haven't met her yet [illegible] nothing yet," she could [illegible] he understood. When he [illegible] again it was to ask, "You[illegible] father [illegible] retired. What is [illegible] In business?"

"[illegible] He's a major in the Roans."

"Roans?" he repeated it with a [illegible] puzzled air.

[illegible] he didn't want to go on in [illegible] mother died I suppose [illegible] to break with [illegible] army [illegible] as he retired. And as [illegible] enough money he just trav[illegible] about with me in the holidays [illegible] alone when I was at school."

[illegible] He turned to her sudden[illegible] "You know it is funny about [illegible] sending you that wire and then [illegible] ring up. It must have been [illegible] wrong house."

* * *

"[illegible] sure [illegible] it must. You'd think it [illegible] more weird if you knew him," [illegible] Alison. "Father's a darling an[illegible] absolute pe[illegible] but he's awfully fussy [illegible] This is the first time he's let me come home alone. A[illegible] he's come to fetch me. And [illegible] he couldn't because he was [illegible] got some one to meet me at [illegible] He's got the most obsolete [illegible] on chaperons and things [illegible] don't think," Gus began [illegible] Alison answered the un[illegible] word. "I don't see what [illegible] else we could do, do you? I mean if we'd gone into Warley it'd have made it much worse really, wouldn't [illegible] middle of the night to[illegible] [illegible] don't it?"

[illegible] so anyway." [illegible] no one need know."

"Except your father."

"Mmm. Yes of course. I suppose I ought to tell him."

"I must," he corrected quick[illegible]

"Why? If you're going to [illegible] me."

"I'd rather do it myself, if you don't mind."

"Why?" Puzzled, she asked point blank.

"Because if he objects he can [illegible] start kicking me."

She said, wondering, "Was that why you wanted to drive me back?"

"One of the reasons."

Alison did not ask for the others. She could guess at least one. She said instead, "Do you think we need tell him?"

"I do."

"I know. But—well he's frightfully funny and old fashioned over some things. He won't even let me go abroad alone when we're abroad."

"You think he'd be angry?"

"No, it's not that," said Alison quickly. "It's the other way. I'm afraid he'd worry and be upset about me quite unnecessarily. He wouldn't realize that I wasn't nervous and felt perfectly safe and happy with—" she stopped short.

"With?"

"With you."

"Thank you." He said that rather gravely and as though he meant it. And they were both silent, each very occupied with her own thoughts.

"Oh, look," Alison pointed. A shiny yellow uniform had appeared over the brow of the next hill, an AA man on a bicycle. Gus braked and slid up beside the man.

"I say, where's the nearest telephone box?"

The man stared at them in surprise.

"Why, you must [illegible] just passed one, sir."

"Far back?"

"Oh, no, sir. About half a mile. And if that's not working, there's another two miles back at the cross roads."

"Thanks."

They swung the car and turned back. Gus did not look at Alison and they said nothing. Half a mile back along the way that they had come, placed prominently by the side of the road and very visible, was a bright blue telephone box. He drew up by it. Alison looked at him; he looked at Alison. They both began to laugh.

About an hour later a long green furniture removers' van pulled up at the gate of the house on the downs which they had left.

"This'll be the place, Bob," said the driver, a long thin man with a mournful blue eye.

A fat man with an apron and a yellow walrus moustache climbed off the back of the van and cast a professional glance at the dusty windows.

"Looks like it," he agreed cautiously.

His assistant, a one-eyed ex-soldier, had followed the foreman and asked, "Shall we start getting the stuff out?"

"Lady ain't here. Can't do nothing till she comes," said the foreman resignedly.

He walked with the slow, stately gait of a fat man past the pantry window where Alison had entered through the back gate and tried the locked back door. He sauntered ponderously through another red gate that led past an outhouse into the garden and stood on tiptoe to peer into the dining room, judging the size of the oak table and sideboard.

He glanced through the French windows into the drawing room, noting the size and shape of the desk with a sniff, and came full circle to the front door, where he gave a long shrill peal on the bell to announce his arrival. A second convinced him that the house was empty.

He let an uninterested gaze roam over the four fine old trees, opened the high red front gate that had a tiny Judas in it, and remarked, "Ain't no one 'ere yet," at the same time taking a half smoked c[illegible] Flake from behind his right ear. Fortified by his h[illegible] sat o[illegible] the [illegible] edge of the van, swinging [illegible] a fee[illegible].

"[illegible] I [illegible] an [illegible]," he d[illegible].

"W[illegible] me, aren't never sur[illegible]," said the foreman. "My wife [illegible] I've k[illegible] [illegible] as she'd be a run[illegible] in a shop and gone three [illegible] of an hour. And then be [illegible] come out without having bought a thing."

The driver grunted [illegible]. The ex-[illegible] kept cra[illegible] [illegible] down the road and back. It was he who shouted, "There [illegible]," and pointed to a dark speck far off along the road.

The speck developed in a matter of five minutes into a red runabout car driven by a dark lady in blue. The three men got down respectfully and waited while she parked alongside them.

"There you are," she said. "[illegible] got my wire all right."

"Seems to have been some muddle over it, madam," said the foreman with an injured air. "I can't be responsible for what they do in the shop. Anyway, we're here now."

"You'd better come in," said the lady briskly. She wore a faint smile as she went through the gate and unlocked the front door.

"You'd better start in here," she said, pointing to the small and shabby sitting room off the hall.

1935 KROEHLER LINE Greatly Improved!

We have always felt that the inside of a Kroehler suite was honestly made and that the material used was the best. Now Kroehler goes another step forward by adding some worth while improvements in the 1935 line. The new line has 50% more springs in the backs. 33 1-3% more springs in the seats, frames are made heavier all around, 4X moss used inside, cushions have sisal filling, 25% more wire in the coils, flexible wire tied tops instead of cord to prevent breaking and 25% heavier burlap.

All of these improvements have been made without adding to the price.

Below are Two Real KROEHLER values in Living Room Suites!

Just selected at random. Many styles on the floor.

If you could see the inside of this living room suite and examine the hardwood frame—the soft resilient springs and clean filling material, you would realize more fully what a wonderful buy it really is. Tailored all over, including reversible cushions. Choice of colors—2 pieces for ....

Duchess of MAIN ST.

The Main Street of Today runs from one end of the country to the other It stretches from Broadway and Fifth Avenue in New York to Market Street in San Francisco Main Street extends wherever highways offer quick travel into towns And the Duchess of Main Street is the American Housewife of today Her's has been the will which has changed Main Street from small rows of seedy stores to the inviting counters of modern retailing

Great Grandmother

In pioneer days the present Duchess' great-grandmother was the manufacturer of all her family's clothes She had to brew all the family's medicines She raised and prepared all her family's food Long hours and endless toil were her lot

Grandmother

The Duchess' grandmother demanded someplace where a few staples could be purchased By 1870, almost every community boasted of at least one general store and perhaps one or two early attempts at grocery stores Quantity not quality, of the few items restocked once or twice a year, was the rule of her day The packaged and canned foods could be counted on the fingers of both hands Typical of that era was the old cracker barrel and open sacks of stale coffee beans

Mother of the Duchess

Around 1900, packaged and canned foods began to make a general appearance The Duchess' mother by her choice of goods demanded that reputation should be added to convenience of use She gladly accepted the new breakfast foods, the canned foods of all varieties, the preserved delicacies, when the merchant and manufacturer made direct appeal to her through advertising

The power of the printed word meant more to her than a personal visit because it was the same message for everyone In advertising she found a uniform gauge of values, prices and standards.

A Rich Legacy

Through advertising, today's Duchess of Main Street has come into her own With more confidence than ever she rules Main Street and merchants still vie for her patronage She recognizes the advertising in the newspapers as a servant and guide in purchasing as clearly as she relies on the newspapers for timely news of local and world happenings Rich, indeed, is her inheritance compared to her great grandmother's.

Time—Her Greatest Asset

The modern Duchess of Main Street has learned to place a true value on her time The loaf of bread in her basket along with the cans of properly prepared fruits and vegetables, the bottle of fresh milk, package of laundry soap, can of fresh, ground coffee, and special-purpose food ingredients—all purchased for a fraction of the value of her time — save her many hours of deadening toil Still young at forty she faces many more years of youth She has the joy of growing up with her children instead of the drudgery of slaving for them and becoming careworn at thirty

Ruler of Business

Gone are the days of bulk sales and unknown brands of doubtful origin Packaged food and other conveniences now purchasable have become not more but less expensive These changes were made by the American Housewife For, by her insistence upon high standards established through advertising, the Duchess of Main Street is the ruler of modern stores and modern marketing methods

A Fact Worth Knowing

Today in America there is more than one food store (grocery, vegetable meat etc) for every 300 people These markets conspicuous for their scarcity in 1850 and their general untidiness even in 1890 have grown until today their employment reaches 1 000 000 Another 1 000 000 employees are directly engaged in the manufacture and distribution of food products The convenience and sanitary standards of modern food markets have kept pace with the uniformly high quality of modern food products Today, sales in American food stores amount to almost $10 000 000 000 a year—one fifth of all retail sales

"Typical Mother" Is Both Modern, Old-Fashioned

Mrs Lucy Johnson

Mrs James Roosevelt

BY JEAN ALLEN
International News Writer

NEW YORK—Recent selection of Mrs Lucy Keen Johnson of Irvington N. Y. as the typical American mother prompt one to speculate as to whether the characteristic of motherhood have undergone a transformation in this changing world.

One might make out a strong case in support of the contention that the mother of today is little different from the mother of yesterday if Mrs Johnson is accepted as the typical example of modern motherhood.

At the same time it would be difficult to deny that this age has produced a modern mother who is quite different in manner and viewpoint from the mother typical at the turn of the century.

Mrs Johnson is a stately little lady with silver gray hair and charming disposition. She is no old fashioned yet she retains many of the fundamental beliefs which her mother probably held.

Indorses Birth Control

She does not believe in promiscuous divorce but thinks it justified in certain cases. She firmly indorses birth control and is of the opinion that the mother today aided by the innumerable [illegible] saving devices of the modern home has a better opportunity for a home career than ever before.

She firmly believes that a religious atmosphere should be maintained in the home and [illegible] that all mothers rear their children in this way.

"All my life I have been an ardent Christian. Religion has been my great solace," said Mrs Johnson. "My greatest [illegible] has been [illegible] experience has taught me the value of education and convinced me that every [illegible] should have the benefit of college training."

Mrs Johnson was selected for her honor by the Golden Rule Mother's [illegible] committee headed by Mrs James Roosevelt. The mother of the President has a great admiration for the lady who conferred the honor upon her.

"The devotion Mrs Roosevelt has had for her son has been an inspiration for me as it must be for all mothers," said Mrs Johnson.

It would be quite possible for another committee however to select quite another type as the typical American mother.

What of Modern Mothers?

There is a distinctly modern type of mother ranging in age from 25 to 45 who is possibly more characteristic of the age than Mrs Johnson.

This unnamed mother is more independent, more socially inclined, more tolerant of [illegible] and [illegible] than the mother of yesteryear. She is less active in religious affairs yet generally believes in having her children attend Sunday school. She often dabbles in the arts or cultural activities, keeps posted on the better books and is not content to have her life monopolized by a domestic career.

She is in some ways more understanding than her prototype of some years back since her youth was less sheltered than the mother of yesteryear. She has a better comprehension of her husband's business affairs and is able to [illegible] intelligently on a wider range of subjects than women once were.

Yet this unnamed modern mother and Mrs Johnson are really not so far apart. Like Judy O'Grady and the colonel's lady they are really sisters under the skin.

217 CHILDREN AT CLINICS IN SCHOOLS

Pupils Who Will Enter Classes Next Fall Examined

Medical examinations were given last week to 217 children who will enter the first grade of Marion city schools next fall in the annual pre-school clinics conducted by the city board of health in conjunction with the Parent Teachers associations and the Marion Academy of Medicine.

The examinations which started on Monday and continued through Friday were held at 12 schools and were in charge of Dr Kenneth D Smith city health commissioner assisted by physician members of the academy of medicine Miss Dolores McMane city nurse members of the Nurse Official registrars and members of the city Parent Teachers association headed by Mrs Francis Hurst district health chairman.

The number of children examined. The number of children examined at each school is as follows Forest Lawn 23 [illegible] Washington 18 Glenwood 28 Greenwood 22 Mark Street North Main Street 13 Oak Street 20 Oakland Heights 32 Olive Avenue 14 Pearl Street 24 Silver Street 30 and St Mary Parochial school 26.

HOLD SURPRISE PARTY

ASILLA, May 10—Miss Jane Lea was pleasantly surprised Monday night when members of the graduating class of which she is one and other friends were entertained at her home in observance of her 17th birthday anniversary. Six tables of euchre provided entertainment and she was presented a ring by those present.

DANCING HORSES ON CIRCUS BILL

Presented by Frank Miller his dancing horses will be the feature of the horse show section of Russell Bros Circus in Marion Monday May 13th.

When visiting the menagerie connected with the Russell Bros three ring circus in Marion Monday May 13 you will probably hear someone ask regarding the wild beasts how long do they live? How do they know when they are sick—how do they doctor them?

All animals including man's own grunt suffer [illegible] on much in the same [illegible]. Their afflictions are the same and they respond to the same treatment and medicines or cares. Tuberculosis pneumonia and acute indigestion are common to the animals of a zoo or a circus. They may suffer from cataracts or even from arthritis not to mention injuries caused by accidents.

Heart trouble not only the physical heart trouble but the kind that results from disappointed affections or lack of it is common with the menagerie family. This is true of every kind of beast or bird so confined. They are true to their mates and indulge in a protracted season of mourning upon the separation from a mate or even from a keeper or trainer to whom they have become deeply attached. This is especially true of the monkey tribe.

Two years ago the Russell Bros circus lost two very valuable chimpanzees because it became necessary to leave the keeper behind. Both animals refused to eat or drink, would not sleep and actually died from grief.

62 CHICKENS STOLEN

[illegible] May 10—William A Simmons of south of [illegible] reported to local officials that someone stole 62 chickens and [illegible] dozen eggs after entering his poultry house one night this week.

PURE PAPER FOR CHESTERFIELDS

They use 300 gallons of fresh water a minute to purify the clean flax linen pulp that Chesterfield paper is made of Champagne Paper Co., mill where Chesterfield paper is made.

Slitting and winding wide rolls of cigarette paper into reels.

Over and over again they boil and wash the pure flax linen shreds before they are rolled out into thin crisp paper and cut into rolls for Chesterfield cigarettes.

Every step in the manufacture and everything about the big modern factory where Chesterfield paper is made is spotless and clean.

Before the paper is shipped to this country it is tested for three things—

Purity
Right burning quality
No taste or odor

There is no better paper made than that used on Chesterfield—another thing that makes it a milder, better-tasting cigarette.

Brilliant Pitching Features Softball Season Openers

CLEVELAND SAILS BACK INTO AMERICAN LEAGUE LEAD

SNYDER GIVES NO-HIT EXHIBITION; HURLERS STINGY WITH BLOWS

Only 21 Batters Face Silk Mill Ace; Two, Three Hit Games Turned In.

BY CHUCK DENSMORE

Paced by the no-hit performance of Maynard Snyder, Silk Mill pitcher, brilliant mound work by Marion's leading slab artists featured the opening round of 1935 softball competition yesterday.

Honors for prying off the lid of the summer campaign came to the Industrial League after rain had prevented games earlier this week. Mowing down the Axe Funeral Home batsmen in order, the Silk Mill team turned in just about as near a perfect game as can be gained.

Strikes Out 17

Only 21 batsmen faced Snyder and not a single one found his way to first base. A pop fly to the pitcher was the only ball hit to the playing field. Two foul flies were taken at first base and one along the third base line. Snyder struck out 17 batsmen.

Terrific hitting by the Weavers featured the contest, offensively. A. Baldauf, B. Baldauf and Robbins cracked out extra-base hits, with the latter two connecting for the circuit trip. On the mound for the Weavers for the first time, Snyder seemed to have the ball doing just what he commanded. Hitters swung wildly for seven innings just to find the ball wasn't where they thought.

Dale Schwaderer was well on his way to a no hit game last night at Presidents field, but two extra-base hits by Huber batters came late in the game. Gasco players turned in a sparkling exhibition to gain an 8 to 1 victory over Huber's fast-stepping combination.

Until Edgington knocked out a sharp double to left field with two out in the sixth only one batsman had landed on base. An error by Marshall gave M. Gibson the free ticket in the fourth. With darkness falling rapidly, Don McAnlnch lifted a sharp three-base hit past the third base foul line for a triple and came home on a poor throw to the infield.

The Gasco nine piled up an early lead, scoring seven runs on six hits in the first three innings. The early lead took away much of the pep expected in the ball game, but gave indications of two fast teams shaping up for Gasco and Huber supporters. The largest opening-day crowd witnessed the encounter at South End park.

An extra inning was needed to decide the Steam Shovel-Hamburger Inn game at Garfield park. Four hits and four runs in the eighth gave the Steam Shovel team a 6 to 2 victory. The Hamburger Inn nine evened the count in the sixth, but Millisor and Knickles were hit hard in the extra frame.

Snyder allowed the Hamburger Waiter and Diabennett hurler, Inn team but six hits. Gaunflo, gave the Pollak hitters only three blows at the Steam Shovel field as the W. & D team captured a 5 to 1 opening-day victory. Two of the three knicks came in the third, scoring Midlam on Lindsey's double.

The Elks-K. of P. game today at Lincoln park is the headliner of the Commercial League inaugural. Others are Westinghouse Cubs vs. Pleasant Lutherans at Garfield, Erie Traffic vs. Eagles at Steam Shovel and Centennial Coal vs. Saratoga at President's field.

PROPOSED BASEBALL CLUB IS ORGANIZED

Another effort to build up an organization sponsoring a Marion baseball club in the new Ohio State League was started last night.

Officers of a new club were elected as follows: Gene Hill, president, Ed Stanley, secretary and treasurer, and L. M. Mash, team manager. Efforts will start immediately to gain a berth in the last half of the league schedule, starting late in July. Additional players will be added to the roster already drilling under Mash.

The proposed league club will play a game Sunday afternoon at Lincoln park at 2:30 o'clock. A fast Nevada team will provide the opposition.

BACKERS OF OMAHA AWAIT RUNNING OF PREAKNESS CLASSIC

Derby Winner May Set New Record in Winning Turf Event Saturday.

By The Associated Press

BALTIMORE, May 10 — Once again the racing clans are gathering, this time at historic Pimlico for the forty-fifth running of the Preakness tomorrow, but unlike a week ago at Churchill Downs, when a strapping filly, Nellie Flag, was the "hot tip" on every corner, they are lauding Omaha, the stretch running son of Gallant Fox from William Woodward's Blair stud, which allowed a muddy pair of heels to the turf's greatest in the Kentucky Derby.

Some 35,000 fans are expected to pack the rambling old hill-top course for the $25,000 three-year-old stakes, first won by the horse from which the race got its name. Vice President John Nance Garner and Speaker of the House Joseph E. Byrns are expected to head the large delegation of government officials from the nation's capital while Harry W. Nice will view his first Preakness as governor of the state of Maryland.

But from the lowly stable lucky to men and women high in political and social life came the same words—Omaha is the horse to beat.

Some 12 thoroughbreds, five of which trailed Omaha home in the Derby, are expected to answer the call to boots and saddles at about 5:15 p. m. (eastern standard time.)

Nellie Flag, with her youthful owner, Warren Wright, holding to the belief that she would have proved a stronger contender at the Downs but for early interference, heads the beaten Derby delegation.

A victory for Omaha would also write a new page in the annals of the famous race for no sire and son ever won both the Preakness and the Derby. Sir Barton completed the double in 1919, Gallant Fox turned the trick in 1930, and two years later Burgoo King won both races.

The four other horses which will get another chance at Omaha, are Mrs. Dodge Sloane's Psychic Bid, Mrs. W. S. Kilmer's Sun Fairplay, E. R. Bradley's Boxthorn and Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords' Commonwealth.

It was the first thought that Black Helen, diminutive winner of the Florida Derby, would accompany Boxthorn to the post but upon the arrival of the latter on the scene of the battle yesterday trainer Bill Hurley announced Boxthorn would be the Kentucky sportsman's lone representative.

Commonwealth also is expected to rally strong support but not so much on what he has shown as on the ability of his running mate, Walter M. Jeffords' Firethorn. The latter turned in a fine effort in winning his three-year-old debut early this week and as the result is well liked by his stable connections. Also listed among the probable starters are W. A. Jones' Furfiber, Dewitt Page's Mantagna, Mrs. C. S. Bromley's Brannon, and Breckinridge Long's Legume.

RICKEY VISIT BRINGS VICTORY TO RED BIRD CLUB AT KANSAS CITY

Losing Streak Checked by Columbus; Milwaukee Climbs in League.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 10—Perhaps a visit from the boss was just what the Columbus Red Birds needed to break their losing streak.

After losing six straight games and dropping well down into the American Association second division, the Red Birds, with Branch Rickey, vice president in charge of farms for the St. Louis Cardinal organization, looking on, belted out a 9 to 1 victory over Kansas City yesterday. Rickey met the club in Kansas City to talk over with George Trautman, Red Bird president, ways and means of helping the 1934 champions.

While Bob Klinger held the Blues to six hits, Columbus blistered Lenn Sillrs and Hal Smith for 16.

Milwaukee regained third place behind Indianapolis and St. Paul by trouncing Toledo's hapless Mud Hens, 11 to 2. The Brewers, like the Birds, collected 16 blows. Paul Florence and Ted Gullic got three hits apiece for Milwaukee. Forest Pressnell gave Toledo 13 hits, but kept them fairly well scattered and was snaked out of trouble by four double plays.

Rain prevented Indianapolis at Minneapolis, and Louisville at St. Paul from carrying out scheduled exercises.

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS PARADE IS STARTED

District Baseball Meets Open Today; Track Events Next on Schedule.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 10—The big parade toward the Ohio high school championships in track, baseball, golf and tennis gets under way this week-end, with district meets in all sections of the state.

The majority of this week's events will be in baseball, with scattered attractions in other sports. Next week-end all districts will be busy in all sports except baseball, only a few diamond features being scheduled for May 17 and 18.

The survivors of the district clashes will converge on Columbus May 24 and 25 for the annual state meet, at which championships in each of the four sports will be decided.

The baseball meets scheduled Friday and Saturday include:

The southeastern district's entire program in track, baseball, golf and tennis will be run off Friday and Saturday at Athens, with O. C. Bird of Ohio university in charge. All events in the central district will be delayed until May 17 and 18. The southern half of the Southwestern district will run off its golf and tennis matches Friday and Saturday, in addition to baseball, but the track meet will be staged next week-end.

Toledo Scott won last year's Class A track crown, while Delta finished first in Class B. Cincinnati Withrow captured the senior baseball title.

OHIO TRACK SEASON TO OPEN SATURDAY

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 10—Headlining the opening program of eight horse races at Grove City, tomorrow is the inaugural handicap, an event for three-year-olds and upwards, with a purse of $500. A field of 10 horses expected to start. The event will be the first running horse race of the 1935 season in Ohio, with the Beulah Park Jockey club sponsoring the event.

STATE COMMISSION TO CHECK ON BETTING

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 10—When "Whoosis" comes home in front on an Ohio track this summer, and you have $2 on his nose, you are going to get exactly what you have coming, no more and no less—from the parimutuels.

The Ohio racing commission made that clear today when it announced that the parimutuels for each and ever race will be checked and double-checked by track inspectors named by the board.

Ticket holders desiring verification of the amount returned on their wagers will be permitted to contact the inspectors, the commissioners said. The calculating sheet on each race will be perused by the state's representatives, thus protecting the state, the public and the track, according to the commission's announcement.

Official stamp of approval was placed on the Bahr starting gate which will be used at the Beulah Park track at the meeting opening Saturday, the state board believing it will give better protection to the horses and provide more equitable starts.

LIGHTWEIGHT RING TITLE AT STAKE

NEW YORK, May 10—A new lightweight boxing champion will be crowned tonight when the veteran Tony Canzoneri, a former wearer of the crown, and youthful Lou Ambers meet at 15 rounds.

They will battle for the throne abdicated by Chicago's Barney Ross, who announced some time ago he no longer could make the weight limit of 135 pounds. Advance sale of tickets indicates the fight will attract close to 19,000 capacity with the receipts about $50,000.

INDIANS DOWN YANKS IN BRIEF TILT; BOSTON HALTS WHITE SOX

Charm of Pale Hose Broken, 10 to 1; New Mound Star Appears in National.

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

One of the newly risen stars of the National League pitching corps has taken his first fall, but another moved right up to take his place.

Blanton Defeated

Darrell (Cy) Blanton, Pittsburgh's sensational young right hander, met his first defeat of the season at the hands of the Giants and Carl Hubbell by a 3-1 count yesterday.

His place in the sun was given over to William (Bucky) Walters, the Phillies' home-town boy who was converted from a third baseman into a pitcher and celebrated by hurling a four-hit, 2 to 1 triumph over the world champion Cardinals.

Although he tried the mound for seven innings in two games last season, Bucky was listed as a spare third sacker this spring. He had pitched as a sandlotter, however, and begged so hard for another trial that Manager Jimmy Wilson gave it to him and found he had another starting pitcher on his hands.

Walters made his second start yesterday, allowed the Cards only three singles and a double and handed out five walks. The only Cardinal run was unearned, coming on George Watkins' fumble of Virgil Davis' two-bagger.

Blanton's wildness was the principal cause of his own downfall as he rang up six strikeouts for a season's total of 36. But two of his five passes led to the first run and an error and two blows brought the other pair. His rival screwball hurler, Hubbell, lost a shutout though Arky Vaughan's sixth homer of the year.

Brooklyn remained in second place two games behind the Giants with a 5-4 "gift" victory over the Reds. Two runs were forced in by walks and two more scored on an error in the third inning which produced all five runs. With Tex Carleton pitching a neat five-hit game, the third-place Cubs slammed out a 5 to 1 victory over the Braves in a game marked by Rabbit Maranville's first league appearance since 1933.

Cleveland's Indians sailed back into the American League lead, trimming the Yankees 5 to 0 in a contest shortened to five innings by rain. The Red Sox finally broke the "charm" the home park has held for Chicago by slamming down the Pale Hose, 10 to 1, behind Wes Ferrell.

Rogers Hornsby's Browns moved up into a virtual tie with the seventh-place Athletics by taking a 4 to 2 decision on Dick Coffman's six hit flinging.

GALION NINE AFTER SECOND WIN SUNDAY

Special to The Star

GALION, May 10—Starting the season with a victory over the Canadian Clowns, the Galion Merchants' baseball team is counting on a repetition when the team plays Sycamore City at Heise park, here, Sunday. The game is set for 2:30 o'clock.

Craig-Panther Mat Scrap To Be Highlight of Card

Feature Program Arranged for Monday; Al Britt to Show Wares Here.

Another of those George Craig and the Black Panther wrestling exhibitions, twice previously proved a delight to mat fans of this district, will be the center of interest on Monday night's all-star grappling program.

The card arranged for Monday night should rank high among the best presented here this year. In addition to the Craig-Panther match for an hour and a half Irish Pat McCarthy will tangle with Al Britt in the second 90-minute feature and Zultan Newman of New York and Bob Cummings of Los Angeles, Calif., will appear in a special 45-minute opener.

All six of the matmen to show here Monday night are top-notch wrestlers. The program is expected to be one of the cleanest, most scientific showings staged for some time. Three weight divisions are represented on the Monday program, welter, middleweight and light heavy.

Considerable interest will be manifest in the longer opening scrap at 8:30 o'clock Monday as the bout will be in the form of a challenge match for the privilege of meeting Lord Lansdowne Finnegan, former world's welterweight champion.

Finnegan, who lost his title on the Derby Eve program in Louisville has been signed to appear here a week from Monday night. Newman reputed to be one of the outstanding exponents of physical development in the East is a New York A. C. champion. Cummings, who fought here Monday night, wrestled Finnegan to a draw on the West Coast while Pat held the championship.

Irish Pat McCarthy, well known to Marion wrestling followers, will be forced to extend himself to gain a decision over young Al Britt of Lucas. Ken Britt is the son of Alvin Britt Sr., one of the toughest mat men of bygone days. The father taught Al much of his technique, including the deadly wing lock. He has hung up a long string of victories from coast to coast with his pet hold.

The Craig-Panther exhibitions, one for 20 minutes and the second for 45, stirred up more comment than any match seen for some time. Neither grappler would get a fall in the opener, while in a semi-final match two weeks ago neither could be pinned in 45 minutes. This mat encounter was one of the cleanest and fastest of the indoor season.

CINCINNATI CHECKS MAT MEN CONDUCT

CINCINNATI, O., May 10—Referees of wrestling matches in Cincinnati will no longer lose their shirts when the big bad men of the mat lose their tempers.

Effective today, those engaging in the manly art must behave, must not "manhandle" the referee or other officials, and must otherwise deport themselves as gentlemen, by edict of the new Cincinnati boxing and wrestling commission.

The sometimes indulged "habit" of heaving an opponent out of the ring is taboo, under new rules which became effective at midnight. Fines or suspensions or both are provided for violations.

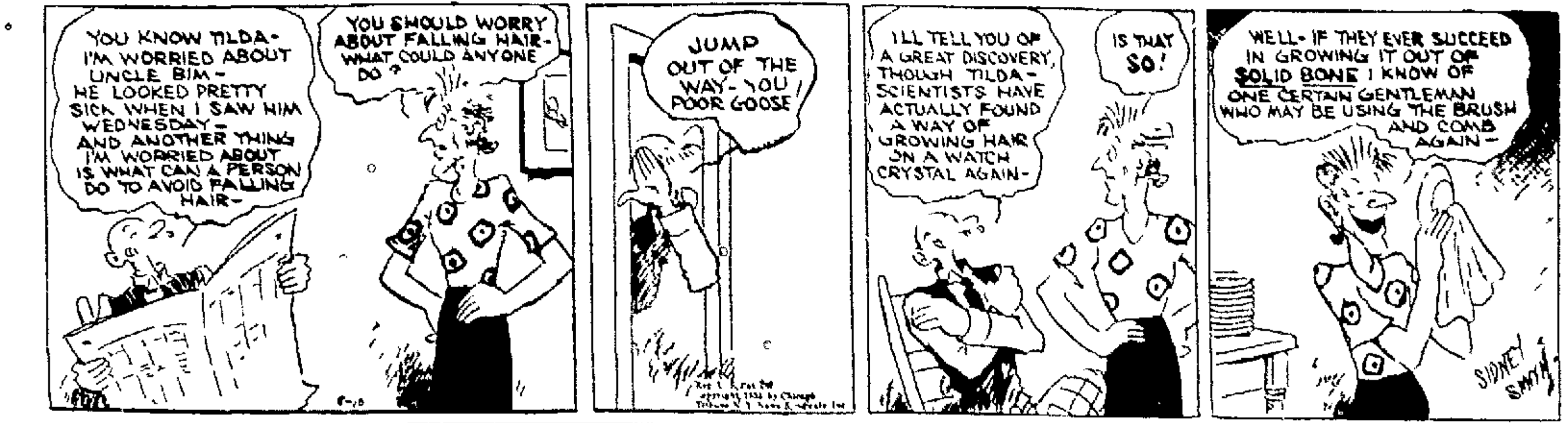
THE GUMPS

BY SIDNEY SMITH



YOU KNOW TILDA- I'M WORRIED ABOUT UNCLE BIM- HE LOOKED PRETTY SICK WHEN I SAW HIM WEDNESDAY- AND ANOTHER THING I'M WORRIED ABOUT IS WHAT CAN A PERSON DO TO AVOID FALLING HAIR-
YOU SHOULD WORRY ABOUT FALLING HAIR- WHAT COULD ANYONE DO?
JUMP OUT OF THE WAY- YOU POOR GOOSE!
I'LL TELL YOU OF A GREAT DISCOVERY, THOUGH TILDA- SCIENTISTS HAVE ACTUALLY FOUND A WAY OF GROWING HAIR ON A WATCH CRYSTAL AGAIN-
IS THAT SO!
WELL- IF THEY EVER SUCCEED IN GROWING IT OUT OF SOLID BONE I KNOW OF ONE CERTAIN GENTLEMAN WHO MAY BE USING THE BRUSH AND COMB AGAIN-
SIDNEY SMITH

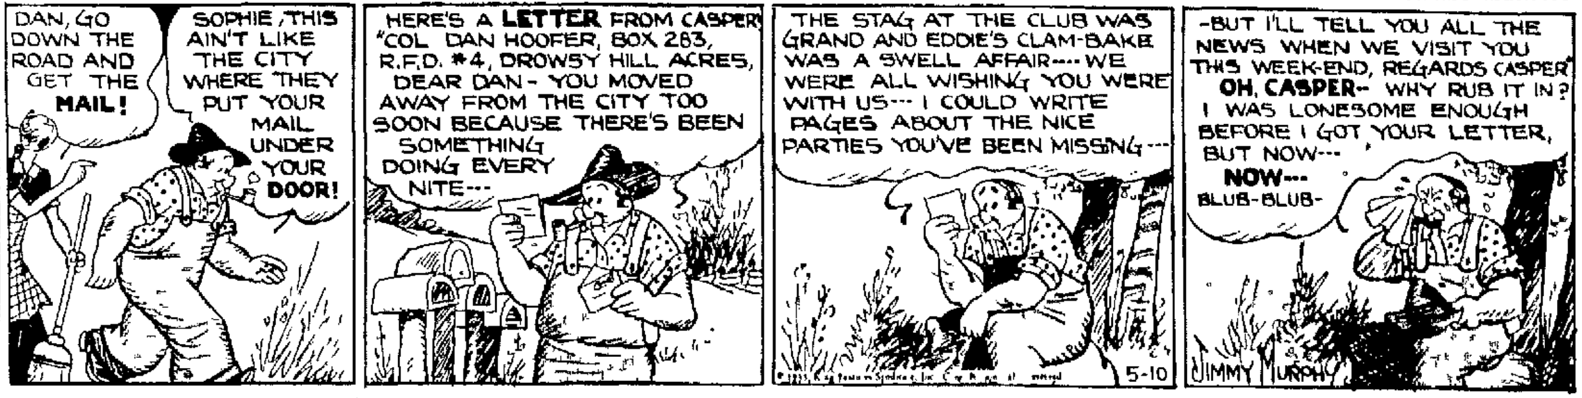
TOOTS AND CASPER

BY JIMMY MURPHY



DAN, GO DOWN THE ROAD AND GET THE MAIL!
SOPHIE, THIS AIN'T LIKE THE CITY WHERE THEY PUT YOUR MAIL UNDER YOUR DOOR!
HERE'S A LETTER FROM CASPER! "COL. DAN HOOFER, BOX 283, R.F.D. #4, DROWSY HILL ACRES, DEAR DAN- YOU MOVED AWAY FROM THE CITY TOO SOON BECAUSE THERE'S BEEN SOMETHING DOING EVERY NITE---
THE STAG AT THE CLUB WAS GRAND AND EDDIE'S CLAM-BAKE WAS A SWELL AFFAIR---- WE WERE ALL WISHING YOU WERE WITH US--- I COULD WRITE PAGES ABOUT THE NICE PARTIES YOU'VE BEEN MISSING---
-BUT I'LL TELL YOU ALL THE NEWS WHEN WE VISIT YOU THIS WEEK-END, REGARDS CASPER" OH, CASPER- WHY RUB IT IN? I WAS LONESOME ENOUGH BEFORE I GOT YOUR LETTER, BUT NOW--- NOW--- BLUB-BLUB-

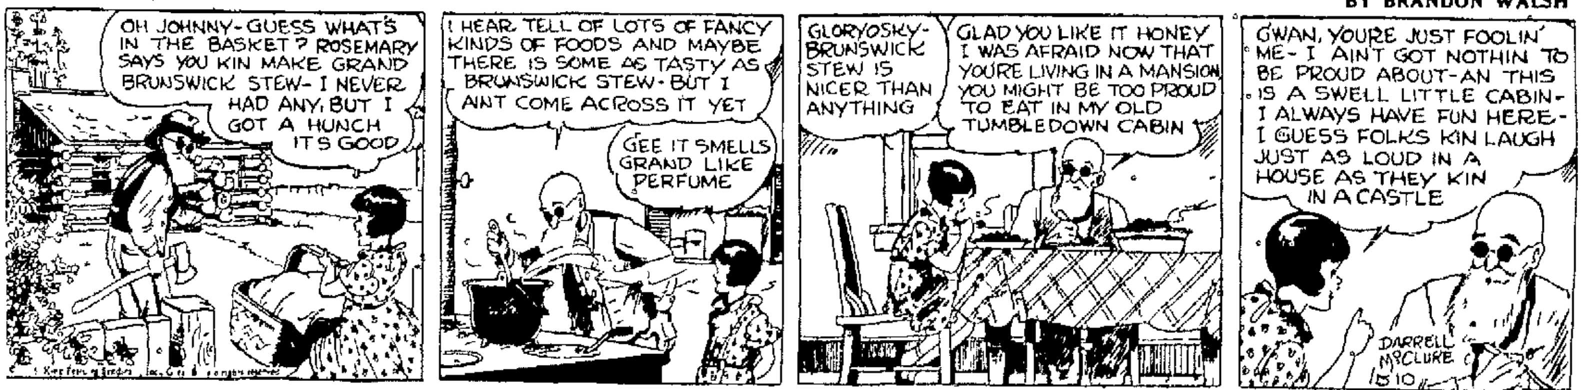
BY BRANDON WALSH



OH JOHNNY- GUESS WHAT'S IN THE BASKET? ROSEMARY SAYS YOU KIN MAKE GRAND BRUNSWICK STEW- I NEVER HAD ANY, BUT I GOT A HUNCH IT'S GOOD
I HEAR TELL OF LOTS OF FANCY KINDS OF FOODS AND MAYBE THERE IS SOME AS TASTY AS BRUNSWICK STEW- BUT I AINT COME ACROSS IT YET
GEE IT SMELLS GRAND LIKE PERFUME
GLORYOSKY- BRUNSWICK STEW IS NICER THAN ANYTHING
GLAD YOU LIKE IT HONEY I WAS AFRAID NOW THAT YOU'RE LIVING IN A MANSION YOU MIGHT BE TOO PROUD TO EAT IN MY OLD TUMBLEDOWN CABIN
G'WAN, YOU'RE JUST FOOLIN' ME- I AIN'T GOT NOTHIN TO BE PROUD ABOUT- AN THIS IS A SWELL LITTLE CABIN- I ALWAYS HAVE FUN HERE- I GUESS FOLKS KIN LAUGH JUST AS LOUD IN A HOUSE AS THEY KIN IN A CASTLE
